Accreditation

To enter the shooting range, all persons involved in the IAU European Championships must have accreditations identifying the accreditation holder.

The Organizing Committee will distribute accreditations after payment of the entry fees.

Transportation

The organizer will provide vans for all delegations at favourable prices and deliver them to the airport. The vans will be used for transportation to the official hotels and from the official hotels to the shooting range until returning to the airport and then picked up again, but only for those delegations that did not come by personal transport.

Insurance

Each national delegation is responsible for providing insurance for its members before (arrival), during and after (departure) the event. Each national team is responsible for the safety and protection of its members.

Doping Controls

Doping control will be organised in cooperation with the IAU.

First aid

First aid will be available at the competition venue.

Customs

There will be no problems to enter Croatia with crossbows.

Crossbows are sporting equipment, not weapons, as long as all participants have valid travel documents! All nations that need an official invitation from the Croatian Shooting Federation must request it in time.

Team Leaders Meeting

The technical meeting will take place at the Zagreb Hippodrome at 17:00 on 27 August 2024. One delegate from each IAU member nation should attend this meeting to receive the latest information about the European Championships programme.

Opening Ceremony

The Opening Ceremony will take place at the Zagreb Hippodrome Shooting Range at 18:00 on 28 August 2024.

Closing Ceremony

The Closing Ceremony will take place at the Zagreb Hippodrome Shooting Range on 31 August 2024. Immediately after the ceremony, the medallists in the last discipline will be awarded.

Banquet

The banquet will take place at the Maistra City Vibes Hotel International, on Saturday, 31 August 2024, starting at 7:00 p.m.
