1. Adoption of the Agenda

Mr. Stojnic presented the agenda, which was approved unanimously.

2. Adoptions of the decisions taken at the IAU EC meeting, via Zoom application online videocall, on February 27, 2022

Mr. Henne mentioned that he talked with Mr. Beckmann about the SP Square. He wanted to be sure if it will be free of charge for the IAU. Mr. Stojnic answered that SP Square will be free of charge.

This agenda was approved unanimously.

3. IAU Calendar 2022 – Discussion about the postponement of two competitions planned to be organized in Russia – The situation of the isolation of Russia

Mr. Stojnic pointed out that he talked with Mr. Antonovs about the cancellation of the IAU World Championship 2022 in Latvia. The World Championship is necessary and very important to be held in 2022, because there were no World neither Continental Championship in the last two years because of the COVID-19. Since the IAU WCH will not be held in Latvia, the IAU is in an urgent search of the new organizer.

Mrs. Samotaeva thinks it is not possible to find a new organizer and she thinks it is the best to think about the online competitions.

Mr. Vrbek is either for the postponement of the WCH, either for finding a new organizer.

A proposed decisions were uploaded to the IAU website.

Mrs. Samotaeva thinks that sport should unite people and the IAU is one big crossbow family.

Mr. Stojnic agreed that the IAU is one big crossbow family.

Mr. Vrbek explained on an example of Croatia, that Croatia Olympic Committee pays for athletes' transport, hotel, food and etc., and he is not sure that they will agree to pay for competitions in Russia, because of many restrictions of the International Olympic Committee.

Mr. Henne said that the same situation is in Switzerland as it is in Croatia.

Mr. Beckmann said that DSB will not pay their athletes to attend the competitions in Russia.

The IAU EC members agreed to put this topic to a vote on the IAU GA. The deadline for voting is 5 days and it will be done via Polys.
